The Chinese Sheng performance

The Chinese sheng is a mouth-blown free reed instrument consisting of vertical pipes. It is one of the oldest Chinese instruments.

On 24th January, Mr. Leung Yan Chiu introduces the sheng instrument and music to our students.

Mr. Leung learned sheng at age 10. He finished his studies in Music at the Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts. He is a sheng player in Hong Kong Chinese Orchestra and conductor in Wang Kwong Chinese Orchestra.

Creative Writing workshop

Students listening to the audio

On 18th February, Ms Rae Leung introduces innovative and creative writing workshop to our students.

Voice Your Head

With an audio recording as stimulation, students are guided into their inner creative minds to reach for inspiration, then express these thoughts and feelings through writing exercises.

Sharaku Interpreted by Japan's Contemporary Artists

Toshusai Sharaku was the most remarkable ukiyo-e artist from Edo Period in Japan. This exhibition reinterprets Sharaku's style in different parts – reprints of Sharaku's most highly acclaimed single series of bust portraits from the Edo Kabuki and Kyogen plays in 1794 will be shown alongside related striking posters by graphic designers of our time.

2013 Arts Experience Scheme for Senior Secondary Students The Story of “La Traviata”

To encourage a school life balanced with both academic and co-curricular activities, the School invites all S3 students to participate in the opera “La Traviata” at Sheung Wan Civic Centre Theatre on 12th April 2013.

La traviata tells the famous story of how beautiful but fragile courtesan Violetta is coerced into sacrificing her one hope of personal happiness for the sake of her lover’s reputation.

A tragic and resonant tale of society and morality, it combines compelling characters with hugely powerful, moving and instantly recognisable melodies, making it one of the most emotionally engaging and popular operas of all time.

Date: 12th April 2013

Time: 4:00 p.m- 6:00 p.m

Location: Sheung Wan Civic Centre Theatre

Prof. Li sharing her art works with our students

To encourage a balanced school life with both academic and co-curricular activities, we invited Prof. Li Wei Han to share her art works and experience with our students on 26 March.

Prof. Li is a famous artist and sculptor. Her works are widely exhibited in Hong Kong and overseas. From 1990 to 2010, she had worked in the School of Design, the Hong Kong Polytechnic University, while making successful endeavors in the art scene.

Imperial Museum

To arouse students' interest in Chinese history, the School organize an Imperial Museum visiting activity for Secondary Four students who are taking Chinese History.

The Imperial Museum is a private museum in Hong Kong set up for the purpose of maintaining and preserving relics and heritages of great historical values. This is an initiative to propagate Peace and Harmony through the understanding of the world's art and culture.

Date: 6th May 2013(Monday)
Time: 2:15 - 4:30
Location: Imperial Museum

Photography Workshop

The talk is designed to give participants an introduction to the fundamental story telling techniques of photography and beyond. It does not only open up our eyes but also enhance the way ones mind thinks, enabling the student to understand how to fashion their own story through the photographic image.
